

Because I Love You™

Parent and Youth Support Groups

DO'S AND DO NOTS

SUGGESTED DO'S FOR PARENTS

1. Do learn the facts about drugs, alcohol, and delinquent behavior.
2. Do talk to someone who understands behavioral and delinquent problems and drug dependency
3. Do attend family and parent support meetings
4. Do set reasonable and flexible limits and controls that you are comfortable with, appropriate to the age and maturity of the individual.
5. Do let the individual suffer the consequences of their actions, except when a life may be in danger
6. Do continue to love the individual, even though you may not like their present actions, behavior, attitude, or appearance
7. Do voice your objections to undesirable behavior, without attacking the person
8. Do allow yourself the dignity and privilege of being a self-respecting individual, with honest feelings, emotions, and needs
9. Do maintain a healthy emotional atmosphere in your home
10. Do develop new interests and activities
11. Do look to yourself with an open mind, and take steps to improve your own shortcomings
12. Do learn to listen to young people, their dreams, desires, hopes, worries, fears, problems, and conflicts. The word is LISTEN, not to solve.
13. Do try to understand the feelings and emotions of young people
