- 75% will be arrested twice before the age of 18
- 95% will not finish high school
- 60% will die or be incarcerated

Working with Gang Members

Respect the Lifestyle/Sub-Culture – You may not agree with it but respect it.
Play "No Favorites" - Practice Equity with all Gangs/Crews and Members.
Respect Territorial Space.
Share Real Consequences for Negative Behavior.
Be Kind in Your Honesty.
Reposition their Negatives and Enhance Their Leadership Skills (HEART Program)

Prevention for Parents

Be there for your children or SOMEONE ELSE WILL.

Tell your children you love them. EVERYDAY!

Discipline your children – "Teach them" – THAT IS TRUE DISCIPLINE!

Don't be afraid to discipline – Discipline is done out of love

*Know where your child is at all times and where they are planning to go.
DON'T BE AFRAID TO ASK!*

BE A PARENT! Don't get preoccupied with being a friend.

Watch for significant changes in dress.

Pay attention to changes in speech and body language.

Stay in touch with your school. Get involved.

Be knowledgeable and acquainted with your child's friends.

Teach your children right from wrong.

Remember, children need parameters.

Pay attention to your children's use of computers, the music they listen to and the videos they watch.

Make and take time for your children. It is your obligation and responsibility as a parent.

*Remember, as a parent, you have the right to access your child's room. THERE
IS NO SUCH THING AS "PRIVATE" OR "OFF LIMITS" ROOM FOR CHILDREN IN YOUR HOUSE!*

"If our children are the future then the foundation of our future rests upon our parents".

Typical Social Identification Groups on Campus

Traditional Gang Members belong to a longstanding gang that is usually second, third or fourth generation credible. These gangs are recognized at the prison level, usually control a certain territory and run all the drug sales within their "turf."

Crews are a group of young people that enjoy being together. Over the past years their purpose of socializing together has changed. There are now different kinds of crews like "party crews", "tag banging crews" and "gang crews". Gang crews function like a traditional gang without the hierarchy of the traditional gang or the history. They have now become as dangerous as traditional gangs and many crews are now sponsored by traditional gangs to increase their numbers.

Tag Bangers claim to be associated with a "tagging crew" and "hit up" or "tag" buildings and other property and if, they are "crossed out" they will retaliate against other crews and local traditional neighborhood gangs.

Taggers are a group kids that like to "tag" or write graffiti. A "tagger" is a person who adopts a nickname (tag name) then writes their "tag" in as many places as possible. Taggers prefer to call themselves, "writers", "piecers", "artists" or "oners".

Stoners or Potheads like to "kick back" together and "get high". For example, "stoners or potheads" will get into a friend's car, listen to music and create an environment full of smoke to "get high", this is called creating a "hot box".

Skaters like to skate and "kick back" together. They also "tag" walls to advertise their skating group. Many have skating names. They are also known for "getting high".

Breakers are a group of young people that like to "break dance" and show off their latest dance "moves". Sometimes they compete against other groups.

Gothic Groups like to listen to "heavy metal", "speed metal" and "death metal" music, wear black clothing, black boots, paint their fingernails black, color their hair, pierce their bodies, delve into witchcraft, satanic worship and "get high".

Skinheads are white supremacists sometimes called, "peckerwoods", a name used by prison inmates to describe a white convict. Students who have identified themselves as "skinheads" on a campus usually commit hate crimes ranging from vandalism to racially motivated violence. The "Nazi salute" and the letters "SWP" for "supreme white power" or "WAR" for "white Arian resistance" are used to advertise their allegiance. A typical "skinhead" gang can number from 5 to 20 members ranging from the early teens to the mid 20's. "Swastikas", "lightning bolts" and the word "skin or skins" are used as outward signs of the movement.
